

Second event of Youth Exchange Youth UP! will be held in Zadar, participants will investigate urban (youth) life in Zadar. They will focus on what the characteristics are, what the opportunities are for youngsters in these cities and what do entrepreneurs do to be successful?

OBJECTIVE:

- To bring 40 participants and 8 group leaders aged between 18 and 30 together to Zadar.
- To let the youngsters explore youth life in Zadar surroundings and compare it to their own situation and reality
- To explore possibilities regarding education, employment and entrepreneurship in Zadar and surroundings and compare it to their own situation and reality
- To exchange different situations and realities among the participating groups regarding urbanization and life in cities
- To reflect city life to the own situation and discover possibilities in cities in the own country regarding education, employment and entrepreneurship
- To create a youth activity to implement after the exchange for 30 youngsters
- To produce a booklet where main findings on advantages, disadvantages and opportunities for youth living in rural and urban areas are compared

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The basic element of activity is entrepreneurial learning. We believe that you can only learn entrepreneurship by doing and practicing it, therefore we will make use of role play activities, case studies, research and investigations in the community, simulation games, problem solving and media assignments (video tutorials). This will be the main methods we will use in the exchanges. During the exchanges we make youngsters create results themselves, this will increase their self-esteem and makes them more confident. The whole exchange is based on working and living together as a group.

The whole programme in the exchange will be a learning process. Participants will learn to work as a team, learn to communicate, learn to use their own initiative, learn to make decisions, learn to stand by their decisions and learn to adapt.
